Public asked for honoree nominations for City's 2024 Black History Month Campaign

Organizers of the 2024 City of Milwaukee 29 Days of Black History campaign are asking members of the public to nominate who they believe should be honored as Milwaukee Black history makers.

The selected honorees will be featured daily on the city website and on the City Channel during February 2024.

“Each year we have put together the list of honorees with great care and pride, but we know the public has the ability to bring forth a new lineup of individuals who have also made their mark on Milwaukee Black history. We look forward to seeing the nominations and to another great Black History Month celebration in February,” said Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs, Alderman Khalif J. Rainey, Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II, Alderman Mark Chambers, Jr., Alderwoman Andrea M. Pratt, Alderman Lamont Westmoreland, and Alderwoman Larresa Taylor.

Black History Honorees/ADD ONE

Nominations will be accepted until the close of business on December 28, and should be directed to cmout@milwaukee.gov or by phone to 414-286-2206. When submitting nominations, please consult the past honoree listings here (to avoid duplication/repetition), and please provide qualifications and reasoning for the nomination.

The Black History campaign, about to enter its eighth year, is designed to celebrate Milwaukee's Black history and recognize those who have made positive contributions thereto. The project ends each year with a festive public program and celebration at City Hall.
